

Luxury Limousine & Airport Shuttle — Special Events SEO & Content Compendium

Vertical focus: Luxury chauffeured transportation for special events — quinceañeras, weddings, bachelor/bachelorette parties, girls' nights out, sweet 16s, milestone birthdays, sporting events, concerts, corporate events, corporate/executive travel, proms, anniversaries, wine/brewery tours, plus premium airport service. Market geography (configurable): Chicagoland / Southwest Suburbs / Will County hub — New Lenox, Frankfort, Mokena, Lockport, Joliet, Lemont, Homer Glen, Orland Park, Tinley Park, Naperville, Bolingbrook, Plainfield, Romeoville, Bourbonnais, and the wider collar-county footprint. Negative keyword directive (hard exclusions): (taxi), (free), (cheap), (uber) — and their families (see §10). These are never targeted and never appear in published copy.

How to use this document

This is a build-ready SEO content architecture, not a brainstorm. It is organized so you can lift sections straight into page briefs, FAQ-schema blocks, and on-page copy:

- §1-§3 = the strategic layer (competitive theming, personas, emotional drivers) that should shape voice and angle on every page.
- §4-§5 = the keyword architecture: head terms, geo + service modifiers, long-tail by vertical, vehicle terms, semantic/entity clusters, and commercial-intent transactional phrases.
- §6-§7 = voice-search question banks and a deployable Q&A/FAQ library written for FAQ schema and "People Also Ask" capture, with ~40-55 word answer targets.
- §8 = transactional + emotional content blocks (hero copy, value props, CTAs) per vertical.

- §9-§11 = schema mapping, internal-linking logic, and the negative-keyword exclusion list.

Throughout, transactional framing leans on positive differentiators (private chauffeur, guaranteed vehicle, one ride for the whole group, fixed transparent pricing, door-to-door coordination) rather than disparaging rideshare/taxi by name — which keeps copy clean of the excluded terms while still winning the "I don't want surge pricing or three separate cars" buyer.

1. Competitive & thematic analysis

Sixteen competitor sites were analyzed for positioning, service taxonomy, theming, and emotional register. They cluster into three archetypes.

1.1 The three competitive archetypes

Archetype	Representative sites	Core promise	Theming & tone	Exploitable weakness
Legacy / family-owned	American Classic (35+ yrs), Cox Livery (since 1995), A Stars (since 1986)	Trust, longevity, "we've done thousands of these"	Plain, reassurance-led, "local family business," 24-hr dispatch	Thin content, weak/absent FAQ & schema, dated UX, little long-tail coverage
Executive / premium	Lux Dryve, Transport Limo	Productivity, professionalism, amenity-rich comfort	Polished, business-traveler framing, "lasting impression," Wi-Fi/outlets/massage seats	Under-serves the celebration buyer; emotion-light; event pages shallow

Archetype	Representative sites	Core promise	Theming & tone	Exploitable weakness
Event specialist	Lemont Wedding, A Stars, Joliet Wedding, the .shop network	Make the moment unforgettable; arrive like royalty	Emotive, aspirational, image-heavy, quinceañera + party-bus forward	Often template-thin copy, low informational depth, weak transactional clarity

1.2 Service taxonomy observed across the set

Airport transfers (ORD / MDW / Gary) · weddings & bridal party · quinceañeras · sweet 15/16 · prom & homecoming · bachelor / bachelorette · birthdays · girls' night out / night on the town · concerts · sporting events / tailgates · corporate & executive car service · corporate roadshows / airport meet-and-greet · wine & brewery tours · anniversaries / date night · charters & group travel · funerals (occasionally) · point-to-point & hourly hire.

1.3 Recurring theming & language patterns (what to match and out-execute)

- "Arrive like royalty / feel like a princess" — dominant in quinceañera and sweet-16 copy.
- "Make a grand entrance / turn heads / arrive in style" — universal across weddings, prom, night-out.
- "Keep the group together / the ride is part of the party" — party-bus and night-out framing.
- "Stress-free, on-time, we handle the logistics" — weddings, corporate, airport.
- Trust signals: licensed & insured, background-checked chauffeurs, meticulously maintained fleet, on-time guarantee, transparent/no-hidden-fee pricing, years in business, family-owned.
- Amenity stacking: LED/fiber-optic lighting, premium sound, privacy partitions, complimentary non-alcoholic refreshments / chilled champagne (where legal), red-carpet service, Wi-Fi, charging.

- Logistics fluency (a differentiator): multi-stop coordination (home → church → photos → reception), getaway-car staging, guest-shuttle loading zones, flight tracking + meet-and-greet, transportation liaison for multi-vehicle days.

2. Buyer personas (with emotional drivers)

Each persona drives a distinct keyword cluster, query syntax, and copy register.

2.1 The Quinceañera Parent (primary booker: mother)

- Who: Parent of a girl turning 15, often Latina/Hispanic household; books 6-12 months out.
- Functional needs: Fits the court of honor (damas/chambelanes); multi-stop (home → church → photo shoot → reception); on-time; safe for minors; photo-ready presentation.
- Emotional drivers: Pride, honoring tradition + faith, "she only turns 15 once," her grand entrance, family status, safety of teens.
- Tone to use: Warm, respectful of tradition, celebratory, bilingual-friendly (quinceañera and quinceanera spellings; selective Spanish phrasing).

2.2 The Bride / Wedding Planner

- Who: Bride, MOH, or planner; books 6-12 months out (9-12 for peak Sat. May-Oct).
- Functional needs: Bridal-party vehicle + getaway car + optional guest shuttle; tight ceremony→photos→reception timing; backup-vehicle assurance; multi-vehicle coordination.
- Emotional drivers: "Perfect day," reduce stress, timeless photos, feel like a couple/princess, protect the investment, no one driving/drinking.
- Tone: Elegant, reassuring, detail-competent, "we've coordinated thousands."

2.3 The Bachelorette / Girls'-Night Organizer

- Who: MOH or friend planning the bride-tribe night; 25-40; high Instagram intent.
- Functional needs: Multi-venue bar/brewery/winery crawl, keep group together, sober chauffeur, downtown (River North / West Loop / Wicker Park) routing, late-night.
- Emotional drivers: Fun, safety, no DD guilt, the ride is the party, glam arrivals, "best bach ever."
- Tone: Energetic, fun, photo-forward, safety-confident.

2.4 The Bachelor / Guys'-Night Organizer

- Who: Best man / groom; sporting events, steak dinners, nightlife, out-of-town arrivals.
- Functional needs: Airport pickups for out-of-town guests (flight tracking, meet-and-greet), multi-stop nightlife, larger-capacity vehicle, discretion.
- Emotional drivers: Send-off for the groom, hassle-free hosting, "last night out," status.
- Tone: Confident, low-friction, "we handle it, you enjoy it."

2.5 The Corporate / Executive Buyer

- Who: EA, office manager, or the exec; roadshows, client travel, airport runs, corporate events/holiday parties.
- Functional needs: Reliability, on-time SLA, professional/discreet chauffeur, billing/account handling, Wi-Fi/work-ready cabin, fleet for groups, meet-and-greet.
- Emotional drivers: Make an impression, reclaim productive time, zero risk of being late, duty-of-care for staff/clients.
- Tone: Crisp, professional, dependable, understated luxury.

2.6 The Concert / Sporting-Event Group

- Who: Friends/colleagues to United Center, Soldier Field, Wrigley, Guaranteed Rate Field, Allstate Arena, Northerly Island, or suburban venues.
- Functional needs: Drop-off/curbside near venue, post-event guaranteed pickup (no surge), tailgate capability, group capacity.
- Emotional drivers: Make a night of it, no parking/driving stress, keep the party going, guaranteed ride home.
- Tone: Fun, logistics-confident, "we know the venues."

2.7 The Milestone / Sweet 16 / Birthday / Anniversary Buyer

- Who: Parent or partner marking a milestone (16th, 21st, 30th/40th/50th, anniversaries, retirements).
- Functional needs: Right-sized vehicle, multi-stop dinner/night, photo-ready, special touches.
- Emotional drivers: Make them feel special, mark the occasion, surprise factor, memories.
- Tone: Celebratory, thoughtful, occasion-specific.

2.8 The Premium Airport Traveler

- Who: Leisure or business traveler wanting a luxury transfer (not a basic ride) to/from ORD/MDW/Gary.
 - Functional needs: Flight tracking, curbside/meet-and-greet, luggage handling, fixed flat rates, early-AM reliability, child seats on request.
 - Emotional drivers: Start/end the trip relaxed, no logistics, dependable, treat-yourself comfort.
 - Tone: Smooth, dependable, quietly upscale.

3. Emotional & semantic content angles (cosine-similar themes)

For topical authority, cluster pages around these meaning-equivalent phrasings so the content reads as semantically rich rather than keyword-stuffed. Each line is a paraphrase family to rotate through headings, intros, alt text, and body copy:

- Grand arrival: make an entrance · arrive in style · turn heads · roll up like royalty · red-carpet arrival · showstopping arrival · picture-perfect arrival.
- Elevated experience: elevate your celebration · once-in-a-lifetime · unforgettable · a night to remember · the ride becomes part of the celebration · first-class experience · VIP treatment.
- Effortless / stress-free: we handle the details · sit back and relax · stress-free coordination · seamless from pickup to drop-off · let us do the driving · everything runs on time.
- Together & safe: keep your whole group together · one ride, one party · a dedicated professional chauffeur · safe, licensed, and insured · no one has to drive · guaranteed pickup time.
- Craftsmanship / luxury: meticulously maintained fleet · plush, spotless interiors · premium sound and ambient lighting · privacy and comfort · attention to every detail.
- Trust / reliability: on-time guarantee · background-checked chauffeurs · transparent pricing, no hidden fees · decades of experience · thousands of celebrations chauffeured.

5. Voice search & conversational query bank

Voice queries are longer, natural-language, and question-led. Target these as H2/H3 questions with concise spoken-style answers (§6 supplies the answers). Structure each page so a 40–55 word answer sits directly under the question.

Discovery / "near me" (spoken):

- "What's the best luxury limo service near me?"
- "Who does quinceañera limos in {city}?"
- "Find a party bus rental near me for this weekend."
- "Is there a wedding limo company in {city}?"
- "Who has airport car service to O'Hare from {city}?"

Cost / logistics:

- "How much does it cost to rent a limo for a quinceañera?"
- "How much is a party bus for a bachelorette party?"
- "How many hours do I need to book a wedding limo for?"
- "How far in advance should I book a limo for my wedding?"
- "How many people fit in a stretch limo / party bus?"
- "What's the minimum number of hours to rent a limo?"
- "Do you charge a flat rate to the airport?"

Fit / suitability:

- "What kind of limo is best for a quinceañera court?"
- "Can a party bus pick us up at multiple bars?"
- "Do you do airport pickups for out-of-town wedding guests?"
- "Can you coordinate church, photos, and reception in one booking?"

- "Do you have a getaway car for after the reception?"

Trust / safety:

- "Are your chauffeurs licensed and insured?"
- "Is a limo safe for a group of teenagers for prom?"
- "Do you track my flight if it's delayed?"
- "What happens if the vehicle breaks down on my wedding day?"

Booking:

- "How do I book a limo for a concert at the United Center?"
 - "Can I get a quote for a party bus tonight?"
 - "Do you take reservations for early morning airport runs?"

6. Deployable Q&A / FAQ library (FAQ-schema ready)

Answers are written at ~40–55 words for voice/featured-snippet capture and FAQPage schema. Adapt bracketed specifics to the client's actual policy. Do not invent rates/policies — confirm with the operator before publishing.

6.1 General booking & pricing

Q: How much does it cost to rent a luxury limo? A: Pricing depends on the vehicle, the date and time, total hours, distance, and any add-ons. Most special-event bookings run on an hourly basis with a set minimum, while airport transfers are typically flat-rate. Request a personalized quote and you'll get clear, all-in pricing with no hidden fees.

Q: How far in advance should I book? A: For weddings and quinceañeras, book 6–12 months ahead — peak spring and summer Saturdays sell out first. Proms and milestone events are best reserved 2–4 months out. Airport and corporate transfers can often be arranged on shorter notice. Earlier booking secures your preferred vehicle and date.

Q: Is there a minimum rental time? A: Most special-event limousine and party-bus bookings have an hourly minimum, commonly in the 3–5 hour range, with longer minimums on peak weekend evenings. Airport and point-to-point transfers are the exception and are usually priced as a flat one-way fare.

Q: How many people fit in your vehicles? A: Capacity varies by vehicle — luxury sedans seat a few passengers, stretch limousines typically seat 8–16, and party buses range from roughly 15 to 30+. Tell us your group size and we'll recommend the right fit, ideally with a little extra room for comfort.

Q: Are gratuity, fuel, and taxes included? A: We provide transparent, all-in quotes so you know your total upfront. Any gratuity, fuel, or applicable fees are spelled out clearly at the time of booking — no surprises on the day of your event.

Q: Do you require a deposit? A: Most special-event reservations are secured with a deposit, with the balance due before or on the event date. We'll confirm the exact amount and schedule in your written reservation agreement.

Q: What's your cancellation policy? A: Cancellation terms vary by vehicle and date and are stated in your reservation agreement. Specialty and peak-season vehicles generally require more advance notice. Contact us and we'll walk you through the specifics for your booking.

Q: Are your chauffeurs licensed and insured? Is the company licensed? A: Yes. We're a fully licensed and insured operator, and every chauffeur is professionally trained, background-checked, and experienced. Your safety and on-time arrival are our top priorities, and we're happy to provide credentials on request.

6.2 Quinceañera

Q: How much is a limo or party bus for a quinceañera? A: Cost depends on the vehicle, total hours, group size, and date. Quinceañera bookings usually run hourly with a set minimum to cover the home, church, photo session, and reception. Request a quote with your itinerary and headcount for exact, all-in pricing.

Q: What vehicle is best for a quinceañera court of honor? A: For the full court of honor, a stretch limousine or a party bus is ideal — both seat the group together and add the celebratory feel of premium sound and ambient lighting. We'll match the vehicle to your court size so everyone rides comfortably.

Q: Can the limo make multiple stops — home, church, photos, and reception? A: Absolutely. Multi-stop coordination is central to quinceañera service. Your chauffeur manages timing between the home, church, photo locations, and reception so the day flows smoothly and your daughter and her court can enjoy every moment.

Q: Is limo service safe for my daughter and her friends? A: Yes. Vehicles are licensed and insured, chauffeurs are background-checked and professional, and we coordinate confirmed pickup and drop-off details. We keep the celebration safe, on schedule, and stress-free for the whole family.

Q: How many hours should we book for a quinceañera? A: Most quinceañeras need enough time to cover pickup, the church ceremony, a photo session, and transport to the reception — often around 4–6 hours. Share your schedule and we'll recommend the right number of hours so nothing feels rushed.

6.3 Wedding

Q: How far in advance should I book wedding transportation? A: We recommend 6–12 months ahead, and 9–12 months for peak-season Saturdays from late spring through fall, when premium and specialty vehicles book first. Reserving early locks in your preferred vehicle and gives time to finalize timing details later.

Q: How many hours do I need for a wedding limo? A: Most weddings run 5–7 hours once you account for getting ready, the ceremony, photos, and reception. Some couples book a shorter window just for the bridal-party transfer and getaway. We'll help map your timeline to the right package.

Q: Do you provide a getaway car and guest shuttles? A: Yes. We can stage a getaway car at the reception exit for your grand departure and provide guest shuttles between hotels, the ceremony, and the reception. Coordinating the bridal party, getaway, and guest transport together keeps the whole day seamless.

Q: What if the vehicle has a problem on our wedding day? A: We maintain our fleet meticulously and plan for contingencies. As a professional operator we keep backup options available so your day stays on track. Your wedding-day timeline is too important to leave to chance, and we treat it that way.

Q: Can you coordinate multiple vehicles and pickups? A: Yes. For larger weddings we coordinate multiple vehicles, staggered pickups, and a single dispatch point of contact so bridal party, family, and guests all arrive on time. Multi-vehicle weddings are best booked 8-12 months ahead.

6.4 Bachelorette / bachelor / night out

Q: How much is a party bus for a bachelorette or bachelor party? A: Pricing depends on the vehicle, number of hours, group size, and date. Night-out bookings run hourly with a set minimum. Tell us your route and headcount — bar crawl, brewery or winery tour, downtown nightlife — and we'll quote an all-in rate.

Q: Can the party bus stop at multiple bars or breweries? A: Yes — multi-stop routing is what these nights are about. Your chauffeur keeps the group together and on schedule between venues, so no one drives, no one waits, and the ride itself becomes part of the celebration.

Q: Can you pick up out-of-town guests from the airport? A: Definitely. We track arriving flights and can handle airport pickups with optional meet-and-greet, then bring everyone together for the celebration. It's a popular add-on for bachelor and bachelorette weekends with guests flying in.

6.5 Concerts & sporting events

Q: Do you provide transportation to concerts and games? A: Yes. We serve venues across Chicagoland — United Center, Soldier Field, Wrigley Field, Guaranteed Rate

Field, Allstate Arena, Northerly Island and more — with curbside drop-off and a guaranteed pickup afterward, so you skip parking and arrive together.

Q: Will you wait or come back after the event? A: You choose hourly service (the vehicle stays with you) or a scheduled drop-off and return pickup. Either way your ride home is guaranteed at a set price — no scrambling and no surge pricing when the event lets out.

6.6 Corporate / executive & airport

Q: Do you offer corporate accounts and executive car service? A: Yes. We provide professional, discreet executive car service for client travel, roadshows, airport transfers, and corporate events, with reliable on-time performance and streamlined account billing. Reach out to set up a corporate account.

Q: Do you offer flat-rate airport transfers to O'Hare and Midway? A: Yes. We provide flat-rate luxury transfers to and from O'Hare (ORD), Midway (MDW), and Gary, with flight tracking and optional curbside or meet-and-greet service. Early-morning and late-night runs are available — reserve in advance to lock in your time.

Q: Do you track flights and offer meet-and-greet? A: We monitor your flight so we're there when you land, even if the schedule shifts. Add meet-and-greet and your chauffeur will be waiting inside the terminal with a name sign and assist with luggage to the vehicle.

Q: Can you provide child seats for airport trips? A: Child seats are available on request with advance notice. Let us know your child's age and weight when booking so the correct seat is installed and ready for your transfer.

6.7 Prom

Q: Is a limo or party bus a safe choice for prom? A: Yes — it's one of the safest options for prom night. A professional, background-checked chauffeur drives the group, parents get confirmed pickup and drop-off details, and no student has to drive. Book a few months ahead, as prom season fills quickly.

7. Transactional + emotional content blocks (per vertical)

Conversion-focused copy patterns. Each block pairs an emotional hook with a clear, commercial-intent CTA. Keep CTAs action-led and clean of excluded terms.

7.1 Universal value-prop stack (reusable trust row)

- Fully licensed & insured · professional, background-checked chauffeurs
- Meticulously maintained, spotless luxury fleet
- Transparent, all-in pricing — no hidden fees
- On-time guarantee with real dispatch coordination
- One vehicle keeps your whole group together
- Easy online quotes & reservations

7.2 Quinceañera

Hook: "She only turns fifteen once. Make her arrival unforgettable." Roll up to the church and reception in an elegant stretch limousine or party bus fit for royalty, with your whole court of honor riding together. We coordinate every stop — home, church, photos, reception — so your family can savor the day. CTA: Request your quinceañera quote · Reserve your quinceañera limo

7.3 Wedding

Hook: "Your day, perfectly timed — and beautifully arrived." From the bridal party to the getaway car to guest shuttles, we coordinate every vehicle so the only thing you focus on is each other. Elegant fleet, seasoned chauffeurs, and a timeline we treat as sacred. CTA: Plan your wedding transportation · Check your wedding date

7.4 Bachelorette / girls' night out

Hook: "Round up the crew — the ride is part of the party." Bar crawl, brewery tour, or downtown nightlife: keep everyone together with premium sound, ambient lighting, and a chauffeur who handles the route while you handle the fun. Safe, glam, and surge-free.

CTA: Get your party bus quote · Book the night out

7.5 Bachelor / guys' night

Hook: "Last night out, zero logistics." We'll grab the out-of-town crew from the airport, run the multi-stop night, and get everyone home — so you host the legend, not the schedule. CTA: Quote my bachelor party · Reserve the ride

7.6 Concerts & sporting events

Hook: "Skip the parking. Guarantee the ride home." Roll up curbside at United Center, Soldier Field, Wrigley, or Guaranteed Rate Field, and your chauffeur is there when the lights come up — at a price set in advance. CTA: Book game-day transportation · Reserve your concert ride

7.7 Corporate / executive

Hook: "Arrive sharp. Reclaim the drive." Reliable, discreet executive car service for client travel, roadshows, and corporate events — on time, every time, with account billing that's as smooth as the ride. CTA: Set up a corporate account · Request executive service

7.8 Premium airport

Hook: "Start and end every trip relaxed." Flat-rate luxury transfers to O'Hare, Midway, and Gary, with flight tracking, curbside or meet-and-greet, and luggage handled. Early flights welcome. CTA: Reserve your airport transfer · Get your flat rate

8. On-page architecture & internal-linking logic

To win topical authority and capture the long tail, mirror this structure:

- Service hub pages (one per vertical): </quinceanera-limo-service>, </wedding-limo-service>, </bachelorette-party-bus>, </concert-limo-service>,

`/sporting-event-transportation`, `/corporate-car-service`, `/airport-car-service`, `/prom-limo`, `/wine-tour-limo`. Each hub carries: H1 with primary term, emotional intro, value-prop row, vehicle options, the matching FAQ block (§6), and a quote CTA.

- Geo pages (one per `{city}` per priority service): `/ {city} -limo-service`, `/ {city} -wedding-limo`, `/ {city} -airport-car-service`. Localize genuinely — name the city's venues, churches, neighborhoods, distance to ORD/MDW — to avoid thin duplicate pages (a common competitor failure).
 - Fleet pages (one per vehicle): capacity, amenities, best-for events, photos with descriptive alt text using §4.4 + §4.7 terms.
 - Internal links: hub → relevant fleet pages → relevant geo pages → quote/contact. Cross-link complementary verticals (wedding ↔ bachelorette ↔ getaway car ↔ guest shuttle; concert ↔ sporting event ↔ night out). Every page links to the quote/reservation action within the first viewport.

9. Schema / structured-data mapping

- LocalBusiness (or `LimousineService` / `TaxiService` parent type carefully — use `AutomotiveBusiness` / `LocalBusiness` with service catalog) on the homepage and contact page: NAP, geo, hours, areaServed (the `{city}` list), sameAs (social profiles).
- Service schema on each hub page (`serviceType`, `areaServed`, `provider`, `hasOfferCatalog`) of vehicles/packages).
- FAQPage schema on every page carrying a §6 block — this is the highest-leverage win given competitors largely lack it.
- Product/Vehicle (or `Offer`) schema on fleet pages with capacity and amenities.
- Event-aware blog/landing content for concert/sporting calendars (Transport Limo already does this well — match and exceed with venue-specific transportation guides).

- BreadcrumbList for hub → geo → fleet navigation.
 - Review/AggregateRating where you have genuine, policy-compliant reviews.

10. Negative keywords — exclusion list

Hard exclusions per directive (never target, never publish in body copy or ad campaigns): (taxi) · (free) · (cheap) · (uber)

Expanded family to also exclude (same downmarket / off-brand intent, plus rideshare brand terms that dilute the luxury position):

- Price-down: cheapest, low cost, lowest price, discount cab, budget cab, bargain, low-budget, dirt cheap, inexpensive cab.
- Rideshare/cab substitution: lyft, rideshare, ride share, cab, cab service, taxi cab, yellow cab, hail a ride.
- "Free" traps: free ride, free quote-bait pages aimed at non-buyers (note: offering a complimentary quote is fine in CTA copy, but don't target "free limo" style queries).

Handling note: when the competitive job-to-be-done is "I don't want surge pricing / three separate cars / parking hassle," express it through positive framing — guaranteed pickup at a set price, one ride for the whole group, flat-rate transfers, no parking or driving — so the page wins that buyer without using any excluded term.

11. Quick-start priority map

If executing in phases, sequence for fastest authority + conversion lift:

1. FAQ-schema rollout across existing pages (§6) — biggest gap vs. competitors, fast snippet/voice wins.

2. Quinceañera + wedding hub pages (§4.3, §6.2-6.3, §7.2-7.3) — highest commercial intent + emotional conversion, underserved by legacy players.
 3. Premium airport + corporate hubs (§4.3, §6.6, §7.7-7.8) — recurring-revenue buyers; differentiate on flat-rate + flight tracking + meet-and-greet.
 4. Bachelorette/night-out + concert/sporting hubs (§4.3, §6.4-6.5, §7.4-7.6) — high-volume seasonal long tail; lean into venue-named, neighborhood-named semantic content.
 5. Geo page expansion (§4.2) across the {city} list with genuine localization.
 6. Fleet pages + internal-linking pass (§4.4, §8).
